

FIRST PLAY LOT OF 1916 OPENED FOR EAST SIDE

It Will Accommodate 500
Youngsters in Congested Ludlow Street Section.

MANY MORE READY.

Music and Speeches Mark the Opening—Result of Evening World Campaign.

The corner of Ludlow and Essex streets was alive with children at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. They had congregated from all the neighboring streets. It was the first official opening of the season of the play lots inaugurated by The Evening World campaign in 1914.

That the play lot is now a fixture was strongly evidenced. Every available space, wherever a building is torn down and the lot can be utilized, it will be used for this purpose.

The very large lot opened yesterday will accommodate from four hundred to five hundred children daily and is located in one of the most congested centres in the city.

A temporary speakers' stand had been erected. A band playing national airs joined with the children's lusty voices and made the occasion one to be remembered by the neighborhood.

Mrs. Mortimer Menken, President of the Spanish and Portuguese Sisterhood, introduced the speakers. Her association furnished the equipment for the playground—swings, basketballs, slides and other forms of amusement dear to children. The women in charge were given considerate credit for their efforts in this direction. They will also see that a supervisor is in daily attendance.

Deputy Commissioner Lawrence Dunham spoke in the absence of Police Commissioner Woods.

Mr. Dunham told the children there was no department that gave the Police Commissioner as much satisfaction as that which dealt with play lots and play streets.

He said: "This is most encouraging in view of the fact that play streets and play lots were practically unknown two years ago." (When The Evening World began the campaign for more play spaces for children.)

He also advised them to abide by majority rule; that if they controlled their playground properly that they could rule themselves.

Sophie Irene Loeb, of The Evening World staff, assured them of the Evening World's support in any way that would help the future little citizens to gain more play places.

She announced that on July 8 seventy-five play streets would be temporarily closed to traffic during certain hours of the day and given over to the children to play.

Police Commissioner Woods will likely be present to participate in that celebration. The Parks and Playgrounds Association will have charge of these play streets.

She also urged the children to realize that the police are their friends, and if they would aid the police to keep order in their activities more playgrounds would be established, to the resulting good of all their neighbors.

Other speakers were Mayor M.
Swann, N. Taylor Phillips and Police Captain O'Connor.

The benediction was pronounced by Dr. D. DeSola Poole.

The playground was then declared open and the children bounded to the play.

Holzwasser Home Talks No. 73
This is a house that appeals particularly to those who never have thought of purchasing furniture on the so-called "installment plan."

One reason is that prices here are no more than one would pay anywhere else for cash. Another reason is that EXTRA courteous consideration has been a watchword of our house for 25 years. Still another reason is that we carry everything from the medium to the very finest grades. All excellent reasons why YOU will find it an advantage to buy here.

"Dry" in Convention Told Liquor Traffic Is Doomed.
INDIANAPOLIS, June 27.—The annual convention of the Anti-Saloon League of America was formally opened here today with an address of welcome by E. R. Rumsaker, president of the Anti-Saloon League in Indiana, and responses by Rev. Robert L.
Davis, superintendent of the league in North Carolina. Mr. Davis pleaded for freedom in every political party from the influence of the liquor traffic. He said that prohibition would soon drive the liquor traffic out of America.

"We have come here to declare for a saloonless nation," he said. "The rum shops from Carolina to California, from Maine to Mexico, must disappear. This is the verdict of society, of business, of science and of the people, and all of these are echoing the verdict of God, 'King Alcohol, thou must die.'"

Don't Let Soap Spoil Your Hair

When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulified coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in; about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.—Advt.

and rub it in; about a teaspoonful is all
that is required. It makes an abundance
of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair
dries quickly and evenly, and is soft,
takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.—Advt.
